Dear Judge Ross;

cc: PARLES

Your Stipulation and Order of Remand has not worked-out for me. Michael Astrue, and the Social Security Administration show that they have no intention of disposing my claim for supplemental Social Insurance, in a fair, timely and honorable manner. Now, 90 days have elapsed since your Order was issued. During this period Mr. Astrue's Department has made no contact with me for any purpose. Consequently, as Plaintiff feel that I've been double-crossed by the U.S. Attorney whose Assistant Scott Landau, strongly indicated to me by telephone, that in my Case, Federal Court proceedings would require an equal length of time there, as were it before the Social Security Administration again. It is evident that by his own request, Mr. Landau had hoped that by October 18th, the Court was ready to proceed. This circumvention of basic Jurisprudence reflects a systematic denial of entitlement Rights.

Furthermore Your Honor, the irony of injustice manifest but 5 days after my signing the agreement to Remand; when a vehicle that I was driving was struck by another vehicle.

Shortly after acquiring a copy of the Police Accident Report concerning the accident stated; Deja vu occurred upon reading that again, as was the case 4 years ago; the Police falsified their Official remarks to the benefit of the opposing motorist. The previous incident was vehicular assault. Having no alternative, I applied for SSI Benefits, to sustain my recovery, and cope with the permanent disability in my right side.

Last August it seemed to me to be prudent to return my Case to its original venue. In addition, my Doctor, who has cared for me during the past 30 years; remarked that the Remand would save the Government some money. Now, in light of repeated Police misconduct that have arose from each incident stated; I've filed a Notice Of Claim with the New York City Comptroller against the Commissioner of the New York City Police Department. I pray that the Federal District Court adjoin him as Defendant, along with The Commissioner Of Social Security, in a new filing of the revised Civil Action on my part, should my Remanded Claim stay unresolved beyond the final day of this year.

Thank you Your Honor, for the time and care that you have given to my Case.

Sincerely,

John D. Hutchins

CC. Michael Astrue
